Social skills and competences

- Getting easily adapted to new environments.
- Living 2,5 years in the United Kingdom and going to the Brooklands College in Esher and Windsor, gave me the chance to meet and live in a multicultural environment. This also gave me the chance to get adapted, assimilating myself into a new culture.
- Interpersonal, self-discipline skills
- During my entire carrier I got in touch with all levels of people where I related to and felt comfortable with most of them, maintaining relationship until today. Also, discipline, coping with stress and taking responsibility for all actions are skills one acquires and consolidates during the whole life.

Organisational skills and competences

Most of the webdeveloping work I experienced were done in groups of 3 and up to 5 other webdevelopers. Working in teams, breaking work down and adjusting to different roles accordingly were crucial for the team advancement. Usually, more than one project run simultaneously, thus dealing with, prioritization and good planning for all project at the same time.

Technical skills and competences

- Skilled project manager, SCRUM, webdeveloper, PHP OOP, HTML, XML, CSS, JavaScript, AJAX, jQuery, MySQL, SQLite, LAMP, WAMP, Windows, Linux, Bootstrap.
- Experience with Inkscape, Gimp.
- Former experience with JAVA SE, .NET programming, Python.

Profession development

Always seeking new opportunities for ongoing learning and technical development. Active personal interest in researching and using the newest technologies, while maintaining skills in the current standards.

Computer skills and competences

- Programming in PHP, HTML, XML, CSS, JavaScript, AJAX, jQuery, MySQL, SQLite, LAMP, WAMP, Linux, Bootstrap, NodeJS, Electron.

- Certificate of secure PHP applications programming
- Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Access, PowerPoint...)
- Internet Applications
- Inkscape, Gimp, Adobe Photoshop
- Keen on learning new technologies
- Previously interested in .NET (C#), JAVA, Python and Android programming

Artistic skills and competences

Since childhood I have tended to drawing and design production. Using these skills, I have occasionally mastered or assisted web-design of the websites I created.

Other skills and competences

Able to work effectively in a team environment, including autonomous decision making and team leadership where necessary.

Driving licence(s)

Driver, A1, B since 1997. Experience with driving in Europe and the UK.
